

World Bar Conference 2012 Friday 29 June – Sunday 1 July

We look forward to welcoming you to the World Bar Conference to discuss “Advocacy, past, present and future. Constant values for a modern Bar”

Venue

Registration on Friday 29 June will take place at the Supreme Court between 14:00 – 15:30:

Parliament Square
Westminster
London
SW1P 3BD

The Supreme Court is situated on Parliament Square, Westminster, directly opposite the Houses of Parliament close to the statue of Abraham Lincoln.

By underground:

- District and Circle lines to Westminster (Exit 6 for Whitehall west)
- Jubilee line to Westminster (Exit 6 for Whitehall west)

Once out of the station walk round the corner away from Whitehall (you should be on Great George Street) and cross the road by the traffic lights. The Supreme Court is on your right hand side behind the statue of Abraham Lincoln.

Nearest mainline stations:

- Victoria (just over 1 km): Walk down Victoria Street (on the left hand side of the road) until you see Westminster Abbey. Cross over by a small traffic island and continue past the QEII Exhibition Centre. As you turn the corner to come on to Parliament Square you will be walking alongside the building. The main entrance will be on your left.
- Charing Cross (just over 1 km): Turn left out of the main train station exit onto the Strand. Passing Waterstones on your left, cross two roads and then walk down the length of Whitehall until you reach Parliament Square. Cross Whitehall, turning right (you should be on Great George Street) and cross the road by the traffic lights near the RICS. The Supreme Court is on your right hand side behind the statue of Abraham Lincoln.

Bus routes:

- Routes 11, 24, 29, 88, 159 and others all go through Parliament Square. The closest stop, right outside the court, labelled 'H' and is served by the 148 and 211. Stop 'R' is situated at the end of Victoria Street by Westminster Abbey and is served by the 11, 148, 211, and 24.

Disabled access

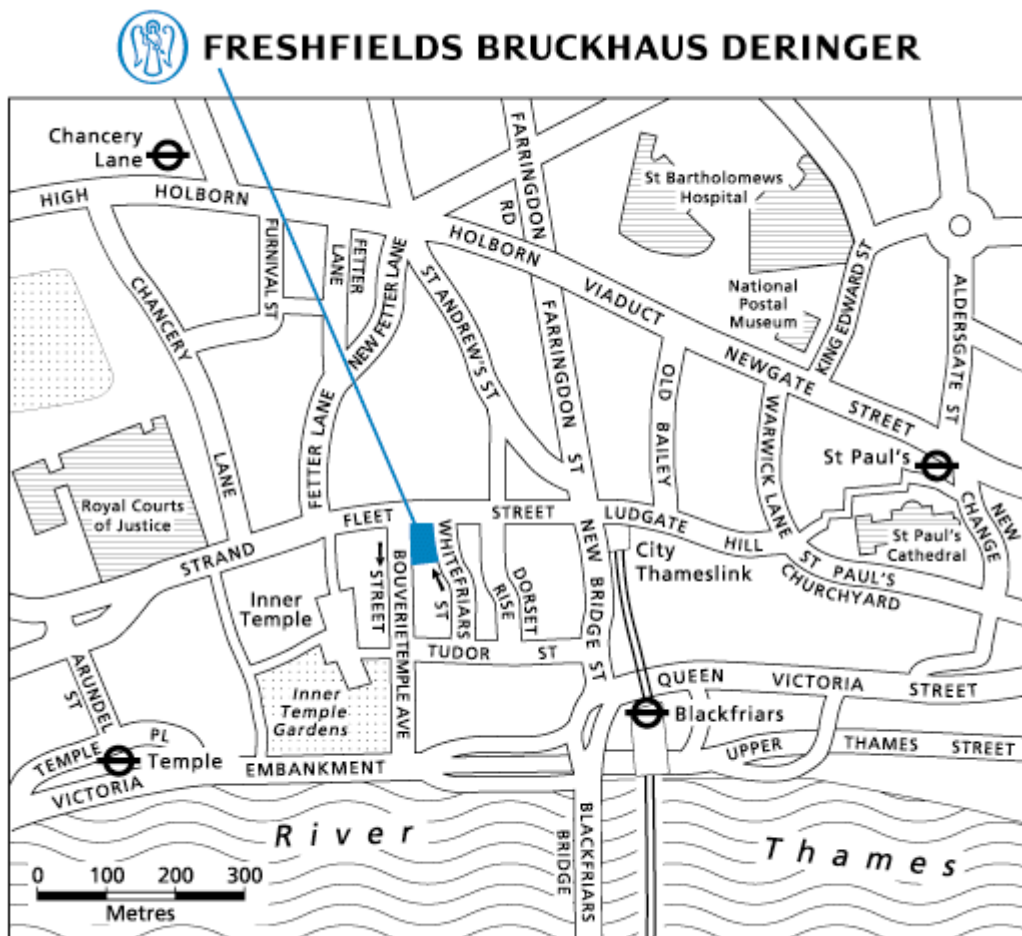

The Supreme Court building is fully adapted for disabled access, with lifts to all floors. There is also a dedicated lift to Court 3.

Please click here to view the map.

Registration on Saturday 30 June and Sunday 1 July will take place at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer between 08:30 – 09:30:

65 Fleet Street
London
EC4Y 1HT
T: +44 (0)20 7936 4000

65 Fleet Street, London EC4Y 1HS
Tel +44 20 7936 4000, Fax +44 20 7832 7001

Dietary requirements and special assistance

If you have any special dietary requirements or require assistance then please call 020 7611 1492 or email lrilfe@barcouncil.org.uk

Registration

Registration will commence at 14:00 on Friday 29 June at the Supreme Court. Tours of the Supreme Court will take place at this time, however, please note that these will have been selected at the time of booking and are now sold out. If you have booked a place on a tour, the time will be stated in your confirmation email. Please stick to your allocated time.

If you only have a screening room place, registration will take place Saturday morning at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer between 08:30 – 09:30 on the morning of Saturday 30 June and between 08:30 – 09:00 on the morning of Sunday 1 July.

You will be given a delegate badge and bag containing the full programme at registration. Please ensure you wear your badge at all times to ensure admittance into sessions and catering.

Selection of tours, drinks and dinner receptions

Only those who select that they would like to attend each activity will be able to do so.

Accommodation

The designated conference accommodation is the Apex Temple Court Hotel:

1-2 Serjeants' Inn, Inner Temple
London
EC4Y 1LL
www.apexhotels.co.uk

Other accommodation can be organised through Superbreak at:
www.barcouncil.org.uk/memberservices/MemberBenefits/Travel/BarTravelandAccommodation

Please view the Conference brochure online to view all further information.